

what to wear...

at a botanical garden

bride Gown, $9,790, JennyLeeBridal.com; flower cage veil, $375, TiaMazza.com; crystal 5-strand necklace by R.J. Graziano, $195, (212) 685-3737; heels, $425, CoyeNokes.com

groom Tuxedo, $2,195, and tux shirt, $495, both by [SIMON SPURR](http://SIMON SPURR), SPURR.tv; tie, $105, US.ThomasPink.com; pocket square, $10, BananaRepublic.com for stores; oxfords, $215, JCrew.com

Wintercreek Estate
Gardens in Truckee, CA, has the best backyard vibe.

style tips for her

- just because you're outside doesn't mean you can't be dressy
- avoid gowns with lots of heavy layers
- try a shorter veil

click>> See more of our favorite dress trends at TheKnot.com/fashion

style tips for him

- choose a black suit—a tux is a safe bet
- shiny ties are a bow tie backup
- to avoid looking overly dressy, skip patent shoes for a matte leather pair